

Dear EAAP members,

while sending you the last 2016 issue of the Flash-E-News, EAAP would like, at this special time of year, to thank all newsletter readers like you, to whom we always want to offer a better and innovative information service on animal science. In this perspective, we are also pleased to announce that, starting from January 2017, EAAP will release its newsletter every two weeks: we hope you will be glad to receive "fresher" news! Thank you for all the support and interest shown in our work!

To Newsletter is available at:
